Want to maximize the amount of money to heirs without risk and without invading their current lifestyle. Opportunity These extremely conservative investors were highly disturbed when they discovered that, after income in respect of a decedent and estate taxes, their $2,500,000 in the IRA would be worth only $750,000 net to their heirs. Results Collaboration and creative planning gave us the opportunity to substantially reduce the income tax while eliminating the estate tax costs altogether. The result is $2,400,000 is now available to go to the heirs without any further tax dilution, $1,550,000 of taxes saved, and $80,000 of additional revenue for our strategic partner. | |
